

FaulknerBrowns

We are currently seeking a qualified RIAI Registered Architect to complement our design teams based in Dublin.

We are recognised for our work in architectural design and placemaking. Our live portfolio of work is diverse in scale, complex in uses, and varied in context. Our buildings and places are imaginative, exciting and firmly rooted in their locale, inspiring those who encounter them to live well and do better.

FaulknerBrowns Dublin is a growing studio delivering ambitious sport, leisure, housing and regeneration projects across Ireland. We are looking for a talented architect to join our growing team, leading high-profile projects while developing their career within a creative and collaborative studio.

Role qualities and skills required:

- Excellent design, graphic and technical skills
- Confidence in project leadership
- Proficiency in Revit, Enscape and Adobe Suite (InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop) is preferred. All projects in the office are developed in Revit from inception to completion
- Ability to work on own initiative as well as part of a team
- Five years+ post-graduation experience
- Enthusiastic, accurate and passionate about design
- Experience of statutory approvals processes and Public Works Contracts is a plus

The role offers an exciting opportunity to work in our creative Dublin studio, with a competitive remuneration package and a 4.5 day working week.

To apply for this role, please email careers@faulknerbrowns.com with your CV and a link to your PDF portfolio, including 'Dublin Studio' in the subject bar.

FaulknerBrowns is an equal opportunity employer and committed to eliminating discrimination and promoting equality and diversity in its own policies, practices and procedures and in those areas in which it has influence. The Practice recognises the benefits of having a diverse workforce and will take steps to ensure that we recruit from a wide pool of candidates and employment opportunities are open and accessible to all on the basis of their individual qualities and personal merit.
