
We are currently seeking talented and dynamic architects who hold strong design portfolios to complement our Dublin studio.

We are recognised for our work in architectural design and placemaking. Our portfolio is diverse in scale, complex in uses, and varied in context. Our buildings and places are imaginative, exciting and firmly rooted in their locale, inspiring those who encounter them to live well and do better.

Our Dublin studio is currently looking for architects with five to ten years' experience in the refinement and delivery of complex buildings.

Role qualities and skills required:

- demonstrable track record in high-quality concept design and building delivery
- ability to work closely with the partnership and senior team to develop designs from concept to construction phase, for one or more core projects
- ability to ensure technological challenges of the concept are understood, managed and resolved in final design
- commercial knowledge and understanding of project running
- ability to understand and formulate design decisions and present internally and externally for discussion
- quality-driven in all aspects of work – drawings, renders, presentations construction documentation and on-site delivery
- ability to manage conflicting demands, prioritise duties and work effectively under pressure while remaining calm and professional at all times
- excellent organisational and communication skills
- ability to meet deadlines efficiently
- ability to demonstrate initiative and a flexible, proactive approach to daily tasks
- strategic and critical thinking
- good interpersonal skills and the ability to work both independently and as part of an efficient team
- strong knowledge of Revit
- knowledge of public works contracts is a plus
